

JoAnn Grimstead

April 14, 1952 - March 29, 2013

JO ANN GRIMSTEAD, 60, departed this life on Friday, March 29, 2013 at the Future Care Lochearn Nursing Home.

She was born in Baltimore, Maryland on April 14, 1952. She grew up in Baltimore and attended Baltimore City public schools.

Jo Ann was employed as a sergeant at the Baltimore City Jail for the Maryland Department of Public Safety and Correctional Services. At the same time she answered the call to serve her country honorably in the United States Army Reserve. Later on she was motivated to transition into another career and decided to become a nurse. In September of 1984 she graduated from The Baltimore City Community Education Nursing Program. For fourteen years Jo Ann was a caring and highly skilled registered nurse. She was employed with several health care facilities in the Baltimore area.

Jo Ann was a fun loving person with a great sense of humor. Her friendly nature attracted many people to her. She was also known for making her delicious Maryland crab cakes.

Jo Ann's beloved uncle, Arthur "Skip" Roane, spent time with her talking about the Lord. We commend her spirit to God – may she rest in His eternal arms.

Jo Ann is survived by: her son, Jerrod; her sister, Jacqueline and her brothers, Cornell and Milton; and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, nieces, nephews and friends.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 4yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”— ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!
