“ To the Family of Ms. Kells: Mere words cannot express the grief you are going through. However, may you find solace in the holy scriptures which says at John 5:28,29 "The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out..." May you continue to find comfort from the Holy Scriptures and your family/friends.###imported-begin##Vanessa Adams###imported-end##

“ Dear Kells Family, I am sorry to hear of your loss.Sadly we all fell the pains of death.But on thing that helped me in my time of greaf is the bible.One particular scripture that encouraged me is Luke 7:12-16. Here we see that Jesus felt pity for the widow who lost her son.Then Jesus raised the boy from his tomb. And he said for us not to marvel at this because the time will come when all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out.So always rely on gods word the bible to get you through hard times.And remember there are better times to come.###imported-begin##kenneth robinson###imported-end##

“ Joann was one of my closet and best friends at Baltimore City Department of Social Services, she was always encouraging. I am praying that God will sustain you during this time of bereavement. To be absent from the body is to be present from the Lord, as much as she loved you all, if she had the chance to come back she wouldn't. She's in heaven rejoicing with the angels waiting our arrival.##imported-begin##Keyza Caldwell##imported-end##

“ Hello, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at Revelation 21:3,4 where Almighty God says that he is going to wipe the tears from our eyes and death will be no more neither will mourning nor crying nor pain be any more. May you be comforted by this scripture as I have been many times.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ Please accept my belated condolences on the loss of your loved one. 1 Corinthians chapter 15:26 rightly calls death the "last enemy" that separates our loved ones from us. It won't always be this way. Acts chapter 24, verse 15 says- "and I have hope toward God, which hope these {men} themselves also entertain, that there is going to be a resurrection of ... the righteous." May this divinely inspired promise add to your strength in the days ahead.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ Although it has been over a year since you've lost your loved one, surely you've acknowledged the anniversary of the death of Ms. Kells. Please know that Almighty God has set a time when He will remove death and pain, all that make us mourn. (Rev. 21:3, 4)##imported-begin##Mrs. Lewis##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son Jesus Christ have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future and our loved ones who have lost their life to our enemy death.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
