“ To The Cosby Family: May God be with your family during this difficult time. God revealed in his word the Bible that it is his purpose that those who have fallen asleep in death be restored to life by means of a resurrection. Jesus Christ himself said at John 5:28&29 that "all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." When a loved one dies, the Bible acknowledges the grief that a person can feel. Jesus even wept when his friend, Lazarus, died even though he knew he had the power and he intended to bring him back to life. Because of the promise of a future resurrection, I hope that your sorrow is not unrelenting. God's word also tells us that the "last enemy death is to be brought to nothing" (1Cor15:26) but until then, you can draw close to God in prayer for comfort and "he himself will sustain you." Psalm 55:22 With deepest sympathy.##imported-begin##Chandra Murphy##imported-end##

“ After having lived a fairly full life, I met a woman who'd make me quite a wife. It was for me ,love at first sight, but o what a night, a night I could really have done without. When I lost that wonderful Joanna, the love of my life!..to Ms. Mary and all living family members...I'd give my life, the very air I breath to have her amountst the living again. I feel like I died right along with my Joanna, and know this for sure.....I will love her until the day I die. Joanna was the best of me and all of me, too. The Lord God had His reasons, which I for one don't understand, butI continue to love that woman whatever His plan.##imported-begin##T.Mike Saunders##imported-end##

Imagine a the happiness to be our when the dead are resurrected in the future. Living for 52 years seem shoten, why, because our heavenly father purpose for mankind to live forever, as most people know that our frist parents disobey and sin enter the world,Romans5:12. We have hope and Refuge in our creator as Ps.46:1-2 say. I am looking to that happening and I know you all long to see an end to our enemy as 1 Cor.15:26.
