“ May your family recieve much comfort and strength through this difficult time. Death is something so hard to come to grips with. No family should have to go through such pain, because it was not a part of God's original purpose for us to suffer in this way. One day his purpose for the world to be a paradise will be fulfilled, and at that time there will be no more sickness; no more death. Rev 21:4 gives us this assurance: "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. "The former things have passed away. May you find much comfort in this wonderful promise, which will surely come true, and may your precious memories be a source of comfort as well.###imported-begin###R Johnson###imported-end##

“ I am so sorrow for you all lose recently. Ms. Joanne was 61 year young. Admittedly, the hope that the bible offers does not necessarily remove all fear of death for us. However, there is great hope for us as Jesus said at John 5:28. of the resurrection. I imagine the happiness that will result when the dead loved ones are resurrected. I am looking forward to that happening in the near future. I know all the memories of Ms. Joanne recent death will stay close to you all hearts. and mind. I hope these thoughts will prove to be uplifting to read.##imported-begin##Lillian Crosby##imported-end##

“ To the Family: May the God of all comfort, Jehovah provide the Hughes family with the strength needed. Please find comfort in the assurance Gods Word the Bible, that very soon death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be any more, the former things will have passed away. (Rev. 21: 3,4) We can have this assurance when we consider the scripture at Isa. 55:10, 11 where it states not a word goes forth from Jehovahs mouth will return to him without success. It will prove to be. The promise that we can all look forward to is found at Psm 37:10, 11 and 29 that the meek ones will inherit the earth and will reside forever upon it. We look forward to this earth being restored to its original paradise conditions where we will welcome back our dear loved ones in perfect health. May these words bring you comfort at this difficult time.##imported-begin##T. Taylor##imported-end##
