“ I wish to express my condolences to the family. I know that your loss is great. May you find comfort from the God of all comfort who helps us to cope with our grief. It can be hard to face each day without your loved one, but the love and support of family and friends, and, of course, our loving Creator, can help to ease the pain and sorrow. Again, please accept my sincere condolences.

“ Losing a loved one in death is such a terrible blow to the family. You have my heartfelt sympathy. May JoAnne rest in peace and stay in your hearts until God awakens her from the sleep of death. Remember, God views death as our enemy, and he promises in his word: As the last enemy, death will be brought to nothing. 1st Cor 15:26.. That is good news indeed! When Jesus was here on earth he lost his good friend Lazarus in death. The Bible says that Jesus was very grieved at this. But then he performed a miracle. He resurrected Lazarus back from the dead. Right before he performed this miracle he told Lazarus's sister Martha, "I am the resurrection and he life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life. After that he went to the tomb where Lazarus's body had been laid to rest, and cried out with a loud voice: 'Lazarus, come on out.'" Then Lazarus came out of that tomb. John chapter 11. One day soon our loved ones will also come out from the memorial tombs, because they will hear Jesus's voice and come out. John 5:28,29. May the comfort from the scriptures bring you hope and strengthen you to cope until JoAnne is resurrected back to life.

“ I want to express my sorrow over the loss of your loved one. Losing a loved one is something we all wish we never had to go through. Thankfully, within his word the Bible, God promises us that soon "death will be no more". He also gives us the hope of seeing our loved ones who have already fallen asleep in death (Revelation 21:3,4 John 5:28,29). Again my condolences.
