

Joanne Terry

June 9, 1958 - February 26, 2014

Joanne Terry was born June 9, 1958 in Newark, NJ to John Terry and Rose Anna (Terry) Hall; she attended Essex County Schools and graduated from Clifford J. Scott High School. She received her Bachelor's of Business Administration from Strayer University in December 2011. Joanne was preceded in death by her father, John Terry and brother Marshall Terry. She leaves to celebrate her memory her children: Shaunequah (Shawnee) Horn of NC and Michael (Mike) Thomas, Jr. of VA., Grandchild; Ava Rose M. Thomas (VA), parents Rose and James Hall, Jr. (NC), siblings: Betty Terry (NJ), Alfred Bullock (NC) and Gina Brothers (NJ), loving nieces; Kakisha Greene and Bianca Araujo, Great-nephews, Jahad Greene, Justin Ramirez and Elijah Roberts, Great-niece, Malaysia Araujo-Wilson, Devoted family Richard Terry, lifelong friends, Diane (Harris) DuBose & Renee (Harris) Battle and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, family and close friends.

Joanne will be remembered for her loyalty and sacrifices to all whom she encountered. Her laughter, stories, determination and outspoken personality will forever be staples in our hearts and minds. When asked how she wanted to be remembered, Joanne responded by saying "I want to be remembered as a loving, giving person who was received as a loving, giving person. I want everyone to be happy and remember that I loved them as well." And in true Joanne fashion, she ended with "Whatever anyone else thinks doesn't matter."

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Death is the enemy of all mankind, yet when it touches us personally, few find the comfort they search for. The doctrines that are taught concerning death find their origins from men and not the Bible. As a result, they fail to leave those who are grieving with comfort or a hope. They do however, leave many with unanswered questions. The response that "God works in mysterious ways" or that "God needed another angel", does not satisfy the spiritual needs of those who are grieving. However, many have found comfort in the pages of God's word the Bible (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). In God's word we find the promise that we can be reunited with our loved ones (John 5:28,29; Acts 24:15). The Bible tells us where this happy reunion will take place (Psalm 37: 11, 29; Matthew 5:5). We are told why we die (Genesis 3:17-19; Romans 5:12), and that the God of the Bible will end death forever (Isaiah 25:8; Revelation 21:3,4). Learning the truth about Jehovah, the God of the Bible (Psalm 83:18), God's Kingdom (Daniel 2:44), and the state of those who have died (Ecclesiastes 9:5), is the start to finding true comfort concerning loved ones who are sleeping in death (John 11:11-14; John 8:32. It is of vital importance to learn what the Bible really teaches concerning death. For more information please visit the website jw.org.

“ I am sorry to read about your loss. May God's words in the Bible at Ps 34:18 provide you comfort. The scriptures tells us "HE" is near to those broken at heart, and those crushed in spirit HE saves.

Peggy Land - February 28, 2014 at 09:50 PM

“ I am so sorry for your loss. May "the God of all comfort" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4) comfort and soothe your heart. His promises, found in the Holy Scriptures, can offer much hope. It assures us at John 5:28,29 that our loved ones will be remembered and brought back to life in the resurrection. Please allow God's Word to strengthen you and help you to endure this most difficult time.

My deepest sympathy on the loss of your loved one. May the "God of all comfort" give you peace and strength at this time of sorrow. For he promises at Rev.21:4 "to wipe out every tear and death will be no more, neither will be mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. We look forward to that promise.
