

Joanne Rebecca Walker

September 15, 1941 - October 19, 2024

Obituary

Joanne Rebecca Walker was a loving, affectionate, and selfless individual born on September 15, 1941 and transitioned from labor to reward peacefully on October 19, 2024. She was born to Mr. Charles Brantley and Vivian Bryson Loney in Richmond, VA. She was preceded in death by her mother Vivian Bryson Loney and father Charles Brantley. For 34 years, she was married to David E. Walker, Sr. They officially wed on February 6, 1967. David preceded her in death on May 18, 2001.

Joanne attended Armstrong High School in Richmond, VA. Shortly after, she entered the workforce at the Richmond Broom Company located on Main Street as a factory worker and later went to work as a cook at MCV Hospital.

Joanne enjoyed reading romance novels, completing seek and find puzzles, and loved watching western shows. She was also an avid weather channel watcher, endearingly becoming the family's personal weather anchor. Her health issues prevented her from attending church but faithfully watched the New Deliverance Evangelistic Church virtual service every Sunday.

Above all, Joanne truly loved her family and those around her. She took an active role in her senior community where she lived, consistently checking on her neighbors and trying to cultivate trust and community throughout her hall. She did not let her health challenges dim her light and made the most of whatever she could.

Joanne is survived by her six children, Sheila Overton (Larry), Eric Brantley (Gwendolyn), David Walker Jr. (Theresa), Larry Walker (Yvette), Selina Irving (Orlando), Justina Johnson (Roland); and her grandchildren Cheri, Jessica, Larry, Lauryn, Mikal, Linore, Marvin, Martina, Deandra, Dimairo, Gwennesia, Kenya and six grandkids.
