

Jocelyn C. Dorsey

February 22, 1956 - March 14, 2011

Jocelyn C. Dorsey, daughter of Geraldine Powell and the late Irvin Dorsey, Sr. Was born February 22, 1956 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life on March 14, 2011.

“Ja-Ja” as she was known to her friends and Ja-Lo to her family, received her education in the Baltimore City School System. Jocelyn enjoyed being with her family and friends and she loved each and everyone of them dearly. She made numerous friends wherever she went and will be truly missed.

Jocelyn was never hard to find, on any given day, you could find her at the Cherryhill Shopping Center enjoying the day or hanging out with friends. She loved to listen to music, dance and watch all of her favorite TV shows. Her grandchildren could never do any wrong in her eyes. She made numerous friends wherever she went and will be truly missed by all who knew and loved her.

God gave you to us for just a little while, we laughed, and talked you always had a beautiful smile, you knew just what to say when things seemed like they wouldn't go your way. You were tired and sleepy and needed to rest. We did not want you to leave us but GOD know best. We will miss you so much this is just the beginning not the end. We will see you again until then my precious child your battle is over.

Jocelyn leaves to cherish her memory, two daughters, Shamika and Korya Dunnock; four grandchildren, Sharmira Norfleet, Rashaud, Rickia and Raven Kearney; her beloved mother, Geraldine Powell; two brothers, John Faulkner and Irvin Dorsey, Jr.; two sisters, Aleasa Faulkner, and Sandra Dorsey; one niece, Brand Davis; two uncles, Aaron Powell and James Davis; lifetime friends Karen Johnson-Leach, and Duanelle Woodard; the father of her children, Donald Dunnock; and host of other relatives and friends.

“ When growing up together it was one of my great life blessing to have a friend like her. We were the best of friends, sisters, and then we became sisters in christ. No one could ever come between us but the love of GOD. He loved her more, so our chain has been broken. Sometimes it is hard to let go of someone you love so much. Everyday I think about the life we live. Everyday, when God wakes you up, tell your family and fiends something good. We never know when our loved ones will be taken.

Love Always,

“ I am so sorry for your loss. The death of a loved one is such a painful time. Only God truly understands the depth of your pain, and he offers comfort and hope to each of you at this most difficult time. Please read Isaiah 26:19, Psalm 37:29 and John Chapter 11.

I write this in memory of my life-long friend, my sister from another mother, Jocelyn. I thank God for allowing me to spend time with you during your short illness, "quality time" I thank him for the laughter we shared, for allowing us to tell each other how we felt about our friendship and the bond of love we had. I had made plans to spend time with you when you came home, to take you out for that birthday you missed, they were my plans, but God had his plans. He decided that he wanted you to celebrate your missed birthday with him, it's like 1 moment we talking & laughing & the next we're gone.. I say that to say cherish each & every moment God gives us, so there will be no regrets when these earthly moments are gone "I Have No Regrets" I'll Miss You Always! Gone But Not Forgotten! This Is Not Goodbye It's Just See You Later!! Your Sista 4ever Duanelle Woodard- March 29
