

Joe Barry Fisher

March 5, 1921 - October 21, 2008

On Tuesday, October 21, 2008 a host of angels descended from heaven to escort one of God's children to his heavenly home. JOE BERRY FISHER was born on March 5, 1921 in Greenwood, South Carolina to the late James and Rosa Lee Fisher. Joe was raised and educated in South Carolina. Then he met his childhood sweetheart Ethel Walker, and during this union of forth-four years six children were born-Annie Mae, Florrie, Ilona (who preceded him in death), Bennie, Joenell (who preceded him in death) and Joseph (who preceded him in death). They moved to Baltimore, Maryland during that time he proudly went to serve his country in the United States Navy in World War II. After returning home he worked for and retired from Pennsylvania Railroad/Conrail Company. Joe was a family man and a life long friend to many. He made several, like the workers at Veterans Hospital, Greene Street especially Nurse Oscar whom he adored; and The Overlea Adult Day Care Center where he enjoyed some of his later years and met many more friends. Joe is survived by: his three dedicated daughters, Ann Houston, Florrie Fisher and Bennie Blue; faithful son-in-law who was a son, Thomas Blue Jr.; sister, Virginia Fisher from New York; brother, Willie James Fisher of Philadelphia, Pa.; sister-in-law, Daisey Fisher of Philadelphia; brother-in-law, Frank Parks of Baltimore, Md.; thirteen grandchildren, twenty-six great-grandchildren, twenty-two great-great-grandchildren and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of Mr Fisher. When we lose a loved one it is so hard to come to terms with; knowing that we can't be with them any longer. 1st John 4:8 says that "God is love." As our loving heavenly father, he never desired for us to suffer through the pain of death. It is his desire and purpose to end all sickness and death in the very near future, and Isaiah 25,8 promises that Jehovah will swallow up death forever, and certainly wipe the tears from all faces." The dead will come back to life again, and if we exercise faith in Jehovah and his son Jesus, we will have the marvelous opportunity of being reunited with our loved ones again. John 5:28,29 May this hope be a sustaining force in your lives to help you to cope with your loss.###imported-begin###Rita Johnson###imported-end##

“ To the family and friends, I offer my condolences. It truly is unfortunate that we must experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love. May you find comfort and strength from the "God of all comfort" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4) who promises at Isaiah 66:13, "Like a man whom his own mother keeps comforting, so I myself shall keep comforting you people."###imported-begin###Gwen Winston###imported-end##
