

Joe E. James Jr.

March 4, 1968 - March 25, 2017

Joe E. James, Jr. born on March 4, 1968 to Joe E. James, Sr. and Lessie M. Brown. Joe was called home on March 25, 2017 to be with the Lord.

Joe was educated at public schools in North Carolina and Baltimore City. He graduated from Walbrook in 1987, and furthered his education at TESST College majoring in Information Technology.

Joe enjoyed many things in life such as fishing, video gaming, traveling, listening to music, playing basketball and collecting comic books. He enjoyed volunteering his time and received awards and a Citizen Citation from the Mayor of Baltimore City for his outstanding contributions as a parent volunteer.

Joe started his Christian walk early in life and attended First Mount Olive Freewill Baptist Church. He recently joined the fellowship of Open Door Church of God in Christ under the leadership of Elder James M. Dyett. Joe enjoyed attending the services and looked forward to his conversations and prayer time with Mother Dyett. On many occasions you could find Joe working around the house singing one of his favorite gospel songs by the Williams Brothers "I'm Just A Nobody" because he never meet a stranger and everybody was somebody.

Joe leaves to cherish his memories his son Romelo E. James; mother Lessie M. Brown of the home; father Joe E. James, Sr. of Angier, NC; sister April James of the home; eight aunts; Sylvia McLean (Mayles) of Lillington, NC; Sharon Harris of Bunnlevel, NC; Dianne Harris of Bunnlevel, NC; Mamie Burnett of Bladenburg, MD; Catherine James of Angier, NC; Eliza James of Angier, NC; Essie Allen of Cary, NC; Mary Harris-Weaver of York, PA; five uncles; Clyde Harris (Jean) of Lillington, NC; Johnny Harris (Michelle) of Beltsville, MD; Johnny James (Geraldine) of Angier, NC; Bernard James of Charlotte, NC; Willie E. James of Angier, NC; special cousins, Israel Allen and Mareece Harris; special friends (brothers) Wesley James, Paul Moore and Anthony Gray. And host of other relatives and friends.
