“ I want to express my sympathy for your loss. The death of a loved one is such a painful time. Please know that God offers comfort during difficult times like these. Please find comfort in the words at Isaiah 26:19, Psalms 37:29, and the 11th Chapter of John. May "the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort...comfort you in all your tribulation" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4).##imported-begin##S. Brown##imported-end##

“ I extend my deep sympathy to the family for your loss. Please keep this very comforting scripture in mind when you feel overwhelmed by sadness that is found at Isaiah 25:8 where God promises: "He will actually swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will certainly wipe the tears from all faces. "And the reproach of his people he will take away from all the earth, because Jehovah himself has spoken it." Imagine a time when there will be no more tears, no longer will people get sick or die. We can trust in these promises, because God never fails to fulfill his word. He is the God of truth who cannot lie, and whatever he wills to do it will come to pass. Titus 1:2, Isaiah 55:11. One day all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus's voice and come out. May you be most comforted by these wonderful promises.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
