

Joe Lamont Curbeam

July 5, 1969 - December 27, 2005

JOE LAMONT CURBEAM son of Joe Author Curbeam and Beatrice Curbeam was born on July 5, 1969 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life on December 27, 2005 after an illness. He received his education in Baltimore Public Schools. Lamont joined the Mount Pleasant Ministries where he accepted Christ as his Lord and Savior. Lamont's last cry was Sis; I just want to be baptized. Lamont always had a smile upon his face. He made numerous friends wherever he went. He was known as Josey Whales to all of his friends. He will be missed by everyone who knew him. He leaves to cherish his memory: his mother, Beatrice and father, Joe Curbeam; two brothers in Baltimore, Reginald Curbeam, Dwayne Curbeam; one brother in South Carolina, Joe Curbeam; seven aunts; four uncles, seven nephews, great uncles, great aunts, three great nieces who he loved very much; Trey'kia, Ciara, and Hannah; a host of relatives and friends.

“ Shawn & Family, I was sorry to hear about the death of your cousin Lamont. If only there were something that friends could say or do, some way they might express their thoughts and help to comfort you, and yet, perhaps, just knowing that there are those who care, will help at least in some small way to ease the loss you bear.##imported-begin##Brenda Royster and Family##imported-end##

“ To the family of Joe Lamont Curbeam I would like to express my condolences to your family at this time for your loss. Please know death is not a natural part of life for any to except it and it brings no comfort at all. The bible does bring comfort in this time of sorrow Isaiah 25:8 says He (Jehovah God) will swallow up death forever and that is a true promise we can look forward to. Just no, the last enemy death will be brought to nothing and that is a lovely thought in this time of your bereavement (1Corinthains 15:26) says. Revelation 21:4 holds the must wonderful promise of all (that death will be no more and all the things associated with this heart ache.) I hope this letter will bring a small measure of comfort for the family and friends of Joe Lamont Curbeam. My Deepest sorrow Shirel Halstead.##imported-begin##Shirel Halstead##imported-end##

“ To the family & friends of Mr. Curbeam, please accept my deepest sympathy for your loved one. A scripture from God's Word, the bible I would like to share with you is found at Isaiah 26:19 and it reads: "Your dead ones will live. A corpse of mine-they will rise up. Awake and cry out joyfully, you residents in the dust..." Soon, we will see those death has taken from us according to Almighty God, Jehovah. My prayers are with your family.##imported-begin##Denise Dukes##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
