

Joe Lewis Hayes

August 23, 1948 - June 16, 2008

Joe Lewis Hayes, son of the late Wade Hayes Sr. and Jeanette L. Parker, was born on August 23, 1948 in Prince Edward County, Virginia. He departed this life on Monday June 16, 2008 after a short illness. Joe received his education at Mount Nebo High School. He worked several jobs including US Foods for over the past 20 years until his health began to fail. In May 1980, Joe met the love of his life Kathy Wilson, and they have been inseparable for 28 years. Joe made numerous friends wherever he went and will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew him. Joe was a devoted husband, father, grandfather, brother, uncle, and friend. He was the family and neighborhood "Jokester" and affectionately known as Joe "Rockhead" Hayes, and his favorite saying was "You Big Dummy." Joe has one sister whom he preceded in death Aileen. Joe leaves his well-lived life memories to: his devoted wife Kathy R. Hayes; four daughters, Pamela, Janet Nyoka, and Joletta; five sons, Michael, Joe Jr., Derrick, Marquise and Reggie; son-in-law, Harriet Wilson; one brother Wade Jr.; two sisters, Bernice and Kathleen; four sisters-in-law, Deirdre, Sharon, Gina, Minnie; three brothers-in-law Reggie, Greg, and Carols; 17 grandchildren, godmother Delores Bowman, nieces, nephews, and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ Please accept my condolences for your recent loss. The death of a loved one is truly devastating to the family, because they have lost a part of themselves. I am so sorry for your loss, and i hope that you find the comfort that you need, and the strength to face another day. I'd like to share this comforting scripture with you. Isaiah 25,8 lets us know that the Jehovah, the Sovereign Lord will one day swallow up death forever, and certainly wipe the tears from all faces." Also the prophet Daniel wrote about the ressurection at Daniel 12,2. He said, "There will be many of those asleep in the ground of dust who will wake up." Yes the dead ones will hear the voice of Jesus calling them, and they will awaken from the sleep of death. John 5:28,29. May your precious memories of Joe be a source of joy and comfort to you as well.##imported-begin##Rita Johnson##imported-end##

“ To the family, I offer my sincere sympathy. When we experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love, it pains us like no other. God's word, the Bible, offers us comfort. At John 5:28,29 he assures us that "all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." At John 17:3 he also tells us what we need to do to ensure we are witnesses of this great event. I offer you an opportunity to discuss these wonderful promises in detail. Please contact me.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

“ Hello! Hayes! I like to send a few thoughts of uplifting words. Lossing a dear love one hurts even as time move onward. One thing is sure our heaven father will never leave or forget you all because he cares for you all as 1 Peter 5:7 say. We can look to the future for better times as Ps.145:16 say. I hope your days keep getting better with the memories of Joe close to the heart.##imported-begin##lillian Crosby##imported-end##
