

Joe Louis Carter

May 14, 1944 - November 6, 2005

JOE LOUIS CARTER was born May 14, 1944 to Mary Carter (deceased) in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life Sunday evening, November 6, 2005. Joe was educated in Baltimore City public schools. He also received training for heating and air conditioning in Pennsylvania. Due to his lengthy illness he retired from the City of Baltimore in July 2004. Joe had been working there for ten years. Like most people, as he got older, he appreciated life more and showed a softer side of himself. It was okay for people to know he enjoyed watching the movie "Bambi." It was alright to tell grown children you loved them and let them see you cry and say you are sorry when you hurt someone and ask for forgiveness. Joe is survived by his wife of thirty years, Francine Carter; four children, Kevin T., Kimberly, Kevin C. and Jason; one sister, Florrette Hoff; three brothers, Gilbert Ivey, Edward Ivey and Michael Nicholson; one daughter-in-law, Chanel Carter; five grandchildren; one sister-in-law, Pamela Graham, his "road dawg" (she was always at his side any day or time); one brother-in-law, and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ I wish to express my deepest sympathy to the family of Mr. Carter. Death of a loved one is hard to cope with. One way we can cope is by focusing on fond memories of our loved one, and keeping in mind the precious relationship that we had with them. Another comforting way is by reflecting on the hope that is laid out in God's inspired word the bible. One such scripture is found at Rev. 21:3,4 and also John 5:28,29. Death was not apart of God's original purpose, but one day soon by means of His kingdom he will swallow up death forever.##imported-begin##K. D. Smith##imported-end##
