

Joe Page

January 20, 1982 - April 22, 2013

JOE PAGE was born on January 20, 1982 to Linda Page and James William Morgan in Queens, New York. We quickly saw that Joe was a young person with an old soul. At a very young age Joe displayed unusual feats of strength. Because of this, he quickly became known as the family “protector.” Also at a young age, Joe demonstrated his entrepreneurial skills through selling candy. At first he was reprimanded for getting into trouble at school with his many enterprises, however later in life these same skills set manifested Joe into quite an entrepreneur.

He was truly a “Renaissance man” being well versed in music, literature and art. Joe loved all types of music but his favorite was classical and Italian opera. As an avid reader, one could expect challenging debates and thought-provoking conversations amongst family and friends. Finding joy in “the art of cooking,” Joe became quite a food connoisseur. He loved to travel, play chess, computers (building his web sites), bowl, swim and read.

Joe was educated in many states, NY, FL & MD. He graduated from Owings Mills High School in May, 2000. He earned his degree in Microcomputer Software Applications from Hagerstown Community College in October, 2003. His hearts’ desire was always to own his own business. Through the vehicle of education, Joe achieved owning and operating two recycling companies “Ecopoise Waste Solutions/ Eco-poise.com and Greensaved.com.” Ecopoise was featured in Recycling Today (magazine) and Joe gave several presentations and was sought as a consultant for the Baltimore City Recycling Program and the National Association of Recycling. Never being satisfied, Joe recently returned to college (BCCC) in 2012 taking accelerated courses earning him an Associate Degree in Information Technology in 9 months.

He leaves to mourn: his mom, Linda Page; younger brother, Brandon Page; fiancé', Angela Reil; one nephew and niece as well as a host of uncles, aunts, cousins, family and friends. Whereas God called Joe home at an early age, he leaves his legacy in his daughter "Isabella Joey-Rose Page" who is expected to be born on May 14, 2013.

Tribute Wall

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ To the family and friends of Joe Page I send my deepest condolences to you. In the Bible book of Ecclesiastes 9:4 it states: "For the living are conscious that they will die; but as for the dead, they are conscious of nothing at all" which brings out the point that the deceased do not feel pain, sadness, troubles or anything at all as if living--death can be liken to a sleep state of mind. However all deceased persons have the opportunity to live again through the means of Jesus Christ death which gave all mankind a hope. In the Bible book Of Revelation 21:4 it gives the promise of: "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." The scripture demonstrates that in a soon time period death will never again occur, no pain of death. I hope that these scriptures have brought you comfort and hope to see your loved one again.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 4yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”— ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!
