

Joeann Griffin

December 3, 1942 - December 6, 2006

Life for JOEANN JACKSON GRIFFIN ended suddenly on December 6, 2006. Although she was ill for some time, she was always in good spirits. Joeann was born on December 3, 1942 to Robert and Catherine Jackson in Greenville, South Carolina. She was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System. Joeann (or Joe as she was lovingly known) had two children, Steven and Beverly Jackson. Joeann was a loving and devoted mother who loved her children. Although she was not affiliated with any particular church she loved the Lord and knew Jesus'. Joeann leaves to cherish her memory: two children, Beverly and Steven Jackson; five grandchildren, Trey, Little Nelson, Donte, Amber and Tamber, all whom she loved deeply; son-in-law, Nelson; daughter-in-law, Tonya; four brothers, Bobby Jackson, Kenneth Jackson, Jesse Jackson and William Jackson; two sisters, Sarah Jobes and Dorothy Hawkins; brother-in-law, Tony Jobes; two sisters-in-law, Delores Jackson and Renae Jackson; a host of nieces, nephews and friends too numerous to name, including one special friend that she has knew for over thirty years, George Dempsey.

“ We are sorry for your loss, but we are happy in Jesus because we know that He was with Joann in the end, just as He is with you through this, your time of bereavement. We love you and if there is anything we can do for you, please don't hesitate to ask. Lots of love, Beatle(Len), Neenee, Lil' Len, Khandice and Christopher##imported-begin##The Shaw Family##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##
