

Joel Morris

August 18, 1975 - October 3, 2006

JOEL MORRIS, son of Eugene Morris Sr. and Joan Morris, was born on August 18, 1975 in Baltimore, Maryland. In the stillness of the day, October 3, 2006, God smiled on Joel and said, "Come on home, My Child and rest a little while." Joel was educated in the Catholic Schools in Baltimore, Maryland. He attended St. Matthews Cardinal Shehan, Archbishop Curley High School and Villa Julie College. Joel graduated with honors with a degree in Computer Accounting. He was also listed in "Who's Who in America." Upon his graduation, Joel gained immediate employment with Systems Source, where he traveled extensively as a Software Engineer. He traveled the world over building networks and refining systems. He enjoyed his career and was a tireless worker always striving to reach the unreachable. But for all his academic and corporate excellence, Joel loved life and gave gifts from the heart. He left a lasting impression on everyone he met and was a friend to everyone. He enjoyed playing basketball, video games, gourmet cooking and hanging out at Towson Town Center. He also loved music and played the clarinet and drums. Joel was also a dedicated son. Whenever he was needed, he was there. He helped his mother with her outreach ministries and his father when he became ill. He was a good brother, uncle, nephew, godfather and friend. Joel was a selfless person, always showing compassion for others. He was just, real and kind, as gentle as a butterfly. Joel enjoyed the simplest things. He loved to walk and enjoy nature or read a book. He was a mild and gentle person. But he was also a soldier in God's army. He committed himself to the Lord at a very young age and his loving spirit has always shown through. Joel fought a good fight until the very end. He trusted and leaned on the words in II Timothy 4:7 - "I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith." Joel leaves to cherish his memory: a loving father, Eugene Morris Sr.; a devoted and loving mother, Rev. Joan Morris; a loving brother, Eugene Morris Jr.; a sister-in-law, Nicole Morris; a grandfather, James Williams (Pop); five aunts, Broadie Mae Blanding, Ella Austin, Madie Stewart, Marilyn Turner and Rev. Earleen Henderson; one uncle, Elmore Morris; one loving niece, Deyara Morris; an adopted brother, Alonzo Macer; one godmother, Pauline Finch; three godsisters, Leslie Wright, Jennell Ferguson, and Joleen Ferguson; four godchildren, Nikia, Candice, Zoe and Madison; great-aunts, great-uncles, and a host of other relatives and friends.

I know it's late but I had not heard of this until recently. I was a very good friend of Joel's at Curley. We played basketball together, I joined the Cultural Awareness Club because of him, and he never ever complained once about all of the additional efforts he put forth outside of his academics. Truly one of kind and I will probably never meet someone like him again.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ My condolences goes out to your family. Please be comforted in the resurrection hope that Jesus demonstrated with Lazarus at John 11:38-44. There are so many comforting scripture for you to share at this time, such as Rev 21:3,4, Acts 24:15, and 1 Cor 15:26. These many thoughts can strengthen you during these times.##imported-begin##Mrs. Howard##imported-end##
