

Joel Ross Sr

November 7, 1958 - January 29, 2018

Joel Anthony Ross, Sr. departed this life suddenly on January 29, 2018. He was born on November 7, 1958 in Baltimore, Maryland to the late Wesley T. Ross Jr. and Elsie Mae Goodwyn Ross.

He graduated from Fairmount Hill Vocational High School with a certification in Welding.

After high school he gained employment at the Roper Eastern for ten years while working with his mother, sister, aunt and cousins. Then he worked in construction until his health failed.

Joe, as he was affectionately called, was the life of all our family gatherings. The party didn't get started until he showed up blowing his whistle and announcing his self "Uncle Joe In The House." He really enjoyed playing his collection of old school 70's music loudly on his turn tables with his concert-size speakers for the neighborhood to dance to. Dancing, replicating animal sounds and cracking jokes were his favorite things to do.

He join Westminster Church of Christ and was baptized under Bro. Semeley. Joe was always willing to lend a helping hand to to anyone and will truly be missed by all, even if he got on your nerves sometimes. He loved his family and always said, "I'm Standing Clear Like a Reindeer" as well as many other sayings.

He leaves to cherish his memory: special friend, Deborah Thomas; three daughters, Valerie Ross, Sabrina Ross and Rosalyn Ross; one son, Joel Ross, Jr.; seven grandchildren; one sister, Ann Denise Lewis (Frank); three bothers, Brandido "Bubba" Ross, Andre Ross and Wesley "Ricky" Ross (Juanita); mother Elsie Ross-Sterrett (Lowan); two uncles and six aunts; a special great-aunt, Mazine "Aunt Sis Williams; and a host of nephews, nieces, cousins and friends.
