

John A. Chambers

August 14, 1921 - May 1, 2002

“And I said, Oh that I had wings like a dove! For then would I fly away and be at rest.”.... Psalm 55:6 John A. Chamber was born August 14, 1921 in Mount Gilead, North Carolina to the late Robert and Ida Chambers. He went home to be with the Lord on May 1, 2002 in Baltimore, Maryland. He was married to Viola Eubanks Chambers who recently passed on March 5, 2002. He attended the Pennsylvania Avenue AME Zion home church of his family. He was a hard working man whose years of work began when he was only a boy in fifth grade. H worked to take care of his mother and siblings. That same dedication to taking care of his family is what he was driven by. He retired from the now defunct Pantry Pride Grocery Store Chain. He was also a truck driver for Schleider Caterers, taxi cab driver, and was a licensed chauffeur. He had a wonderful knack for being able to start up a conversation with anyone. He was able to keep everyone entertained with his playful sense of humor and his remarkable stories. He was very proud of all his children and their accomplishments. He is survived by daughters, Quessi Chambers Vernon of Durham, North Carolina, Deborah Chambers Carter of Baltimore, Maryland, and Gwendolyn Chambers Coleman of Chesapeake, Virginia, and sons, Vernon Lee Chambers, who preceded him in death. He had seven grandchildren, Damon A. Chambers, Diarrhea W.R. Scott, Alfred B. Coleman II, David A. Coleman, Sedgwick M. Davis, Veronica L. Embanks, and the daughter of Vernon Lee Chambers, one surviving brother Cecil Chambers and one surviving sister, Lillie Ruth Miller both of Baltimore, Maryland, and a host of nieces, nephews, relatives and friends.

“ The richness of the human experience is in what is handed down from one life to the next –not simple things of mortar and stone, but memories of what one said or felt or did. Live with your good memories, as they will add to your comfort, which comes from knowing that your grief is shared and understood.##imported-begin##The March Family and Staff##imported-end##
