

John A. Moore

May 27, 1954 - February 26, 2007

John Alvin Moore, son of the late Burt and Woolridge Moore, was born on May 27, 1954 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life on February 26, 2007 after battling an extensive illness. Alvin received the Lord Jesus Christ and was baptized at the age of 11 years old at the Zion Baptist Church. As a young boy, he participated in the Baptist Training Union, and would often sing fervently "All night, all day, angels watching over me my Lord." He became an inactive member, and was reinstated to the church in 2002. Educated in Baltimore City Public Schools, Alvin later joined the United States National Guard. After being honorably discharged, he became employed at the Whiting and Turner Construction Company. For the past twenty years, until his health began to fail, he was employed at Crown's Lumber Company. In February 1977, Alvin was joined in Holy Matrimony to the late Mary Alston, who preceded him in death. He will be remembered for his generous spirit, his jovial personality, and his willingness to give words of wisdom. His memory will be cherished by; two sisters, Yvonne Epps and Marion Eggleston; niece, Tamika Johnson (Marcus); four nephews, Timothy Epps (Cheryl), Antone Epps, Michael Eggleston and Brian Rose; two aunts and a host of cousins, other relatives and devoted friends.

Tribute Wall

“ John A. Moore

---

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ Please, dear family, accept my condolences for your loss. I know this is a sorrowful time for your family, but know this that God has a wonderful purpose in store for mankind, and that is to end all sorrow, sickness and death in the very near future. 1st Cor.15,26 promise, \\\"As the last enemy, death will be brought to nothing.\\\" One day your dear loved one will hear the voice of Jesus Christ; then he will wake up from the sleep of death. May those thoughts be a comfort to you during this sad time, and may your precious memories help you to cope.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

---

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM