

John Addison

August 18, 1948 - March 27, 2005

Of the late Maggie and Weldon Addison. God called John home during the Holy Season of Easter: He left us on Sunday, March 27, 2005. He was born August 18, 1948, in Rowland, North Carolina. He graduated from Southside High School. Following high school he enrolled in the U.S. Army for six years. It was at Southside High School where he met his future wife. It was also there that he learned the trade of home building under the leadership of his shop teacher, Mr. Jones. After his Army stay, he returned home and married the love of his life, Betty Hall. From this union two children were born, Kecia and John Keegon. John had many momentous occasions in his life. Among them God gave them a son (John Keegon) twelve years following the birth of his daughter (Kecia). Then the marriage of his daughter (Kecia) to her husband Michael Scott in November 2003. However, John's greatest occasion was his acceptance of The Lord Jesus the Christ as his personal Savior. Following his salvation John thirsted for the true knowledge of Jesus Christ. He was so Thankful that he had come to know Jesus because He blessed him and gave him peace and joy within. John attended Family Bible Study, Church School and Church Bible Study. He always attended the 7:30 a.m. Worship Service. He had planned to attend Easter Sunrise Service and sit by the window with his parents' name on it (sixth window from the front). He also enjoyed bowling with the Church league on Friday evenings at 8:00 p.m. He and his sister, Esther, were team mates. They last bowled as a team on Friday, March 25, 2005. John's Mom raised her nine children as nine Peas in a pod: "All for One and One for All". John is the first pea to leave the pod. We know he is somewhere around the Throne with Jesus, his Mom, Dad and the two nephews who went on before him. We loved John, and to cherish his memory. He leaves his wife Betty, his loving and caring daughter Kecia and his thankfulness and pride for his son, John Keegon; and a son-in-law Michael. The remaining eight peas, Sister Grace Bailey (Melvin), brother Sterling Addison (Gloria), Sister Loisteen McEachern, Sister Esther Roberts (Elmer), all of Baltimore, Brother Joseph Addison (Maezella), Sister Josephine Monroe (Eddie), Sister Luesther Watson (Harvey), all residing in North Carolina, and Brother William Addison (Vickie) hailing from Killeen, Texas. There is a host of nieces, nephews, cousins a few aunts and uncles, friends and a host of in-laws. Remember John as a husband, a father, a brother, an uncle, a cousin and a friend.

“ I am so sorry to hear about the loss of Mr. Addison. When we lose someone that is dear to us it can leave us feeling so empty and lonely inside. At times like this we may need some encouragement. I have found that the finest basis of encouragement comes from the Bible. A relationship with Almighty God Jehovah can help you to cope with the loss of Mr. Addison. Never underestimate the value of prayer. If talking out your problems with a friend can help, how much more can pouring out your heart to the God of all comfort help you. Notice what the Bible says at Psalms 55:22... Throw your burden upon Jehovah himself, and he himself will sustain you. Never will he allow the righteous to totter. You can also remember what Jesus said at John 5:28-29.... Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tomb will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life. Almighty God is going to soon put an end to all of the grief that we have to deal with from losing someone that we love. I want to encourage you to read Psalms 83:18 as well as the other scriptures that have been written from your own copy of the Bible. I hope that you can find some comfort from these scriptures. Take care. ##imported-begin##Ava Norton##imported-end##

“ My condolences to the family. It seems so unfair that death should have the power to take away someone we love. However, the bible assures us at John 5:28,29 "The hour is coming in which all those in their memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life." May you find comfort from the holy scriptures, family, and friends.##imported-begin##V Adams##imported-end##

“ I would like to extend my sympathy to the Addison family. Jesus promised that all those that were in the grave would one day listen and hear his voice and come out. Jesus said to Martha, "I am the resurrection and the life. He that excercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life."###imported-begin###April Robinson###imported-end###

“ To The Family: My condolences to you for the loss of your dear loved one. The Bible has been a great source of comfort for our family through the years. One such comforting passage is Job 14:14,15- "If an able-bodied man dies can he live again? All the days of my compulsory service I shall wait. Until my relief comes. You will call, and I myself shall answer you. For the work of your hands you will have a yearning." It is my hope that this divinely inspired promise will add to your strength in the days ahead.###imported-begin###Sharon Hill###imported-end###

“ Though during your time of grief it may not seem possible but there is always light at the end of every tunnel especially when someone dear has been separated from us due to death. Death in this present day is not something we want as a part of life’s cycle. Our heavenly father Jehovah God wants you to know that. He wants all people to know he is aware of all our suffering and losses due to our enemy Satan and he will soon rectify because this is not the way he purpose life to be. 1John 4:8 lets us know God is Love so out of his love for us he made a provision that only the true and Almighty God can do. Jehovah have promise according to Rev 21:3,4 that death one day will be no more... the things that causes pain and mourning will be no more. As for those we have lost to death, John 5: 28, 29 states those in the memorial tombs will hear God’s sons voice, Jesus Christ and will awaken from an eternal sleep that have been made a temporary state now due to the ransom sacrifice of Jesus Christ. How wonderful the day when you will be able to enjoy your once lost loved one to death. Yes Jehovah promises us the gift of everlasting life according to Titus 1:2. The righteous ones will reside on earth forever as he informs us at Psalms 37:29 because that have always been his purpose since the beginning of mans creation again stated at Titus 1:2. You can have trust in this promised hope because Isaiah 55: 11 states of Jehovah his words will not return to him without results. Yes trust in God’s word the bible because Hebrews 6:18 says it is impossible for God to lie. My prayers are with you.##imported-begin##B Carter##imported-end##

“ Please accept my deepest sympathy for your loss. My grandmother was born the same year as Mr.Addison. I know its a hurtfull thing to see anyone you know die, especially those up in age;because its as if they been around forever and now their gone.I know it is very hard to lose someone, I've lost many friends and family. But the bible helped soothe my mourning,maybe these scriptures can serve as comforting words as well as they did for me. At John 5:28,29 it tells us:28 Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice...Acts 24:15 also mentions a resurrection notice it says:and I have hope toward God, which hope these [men] themselves also entertain, that there is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous...so you see our God, Jehovah is going to make it so that there will be a paradise earth and the righteous will reside upon it (Psalms 37: 29). So may these scriptures help you to cope.##imported-begin##sorry2 hear##imported-end##
