

John Archer Williams

August 7, 1955 - December 6, 2002

John A. Williams, better known as Jack, son of the late James O. Lillie Williams, was born on August 7, 1955 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life on December 6, 2002 at the age of 47, after a lengthy illness. He received his education in the Baltimore City Public School System. He furthered his education at Coppin State College, in which he received his Bachelor of Science Degree in 1993. Upon completion of his education, he became a full-time employee of the State of Maryland in Carpentry. He was blessed with creative hands. Jack, as he was known, was surely a “Jack of all Trades,” for he could design, draw, fix and /or create almost anything by request. John was a friendly and outgoing individual. He attended church at an early age. He always carried the serenity prayer in his wallet, which states, “God grant me the serenity to accept the things I cannot change, courage to change the things I can, and the wisdom to know the difference. He leaves to cherish his memory: his fiancé, Betty Wilford; five brothers, James, Charles, Robert, Raymond and Ernest Williams; four sisters, Lillie Fain, Louise Burley, Martha Taylor and Mary Washington; three sisters-in-law, four brothers-in-law, two aunts, Pearl Brown of Baltimore and Penny Arrington of Warrenton, North Carolina; two uncles, Thomas Brown of Baltimore and John Davis of Warrenton, North Carolina; seven nephews, seven nieces, and a host of other relatives and friends.
