

John Arthur Gladden

May 18, 1940 - May 9, 2002

“Weeping may endure for a night, but joy cometh in the morning”. John Arthur Gladden, the third son of the late James and Maggie Gladden, was born on May 18, 1940. He departed this life on Thursday, May 9, 2002 after a lengthy illness. John received his education in the public schools of Baltimore City. He developed a life long love of music. During his spare time he enjoyed playing cards, dancing and cooking. He was employed at Greater Baltimore Medical Center where he worked in the Housekeeping Department. John later professed religion and was baptized. He will be remembered as a devoted relative, loyal worker and faithful friend. He leaves to celebrate his life and mourn his passing three brothers, James, William and Samuel Gladden; one sister, Bernice Lyde; one sister-in-law, nephews, nieces, and a host of relatives and friends.
