“ To the family. I would like to ask that you please accept my wholehearted condolences, knowing that I surely could not fully understand how you feel. I would just like to leave you with a comforting scripture that gives us not only hope for the future, but also some relief in our time of mourning. John the 5th chapter, verses 28 and 29 says, "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which ALL those in the memorial tombs will hear his (Jesus Christ) voice and come out." Yes, in the very near future we will have the wonderful opportunity to welcome our dead loved ones who have fallen asleep in death back to life, right here on a paradise earth. (Psalm 37:10, 11, 29) May the words found in the Bible ease your pain as we await the fulfillment of these wonderful promises.##imported-begin##Sausha S.##imported-end##

“ Please accept my heartfelt condolences for your loss. Truly, the death of a loved one is so hard to come to terms with. But know that our loving heavenly father is the God of all comfort who comforts us during all of our tribulations. 2nd Cor 1:3,4 One day you have the wonderful opportunity to be reunited with your loved one again. Jehovah has promised that the dead will open their eyes again, because they will hear the voice of Jesus, and come out of those tombs. John 5:28,29. May you find much comfort and strength in all of God's promises.##imported-begin##Rita Johnson##imported-end##
