

John Thomas Bailey III

May 12, 1949 - November 16, 2012

JOHN T. BAILEY III, son of Louise Bailey and John T. Bailey, Jr., was born on May 12, 1949 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life on November 16, 2012 after a lengthy illness.

He received his education at Mergenthaler High School. John, affectionately known as Jackie or Jack Man, enlisted in the United States Air Force in 1971. He retired from the United States Postal Service on a medical disability in 1989, after exposure to toxic substances that resulted in the suffering of various respiratory problems.

Jackie was jovial, generous and caring. He took pride in rescuing and caring for stray cats in his neighborhood. Jackie was a wonderful handyman. He took great pride in his many home improvements. Jackie was also quite the talker which was easily evident by his lengthy voice mail greeting that ended with these words "live well because tomorrow is not promised to any one".

Jackie made many friends wherever he went and will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew him.

He married the former Lucy Charles. This union lasted twelve years. Jackie and Lucy remained the best of friends.

Jackie leaves to mourn: his parents, Louise and John T. Bailey, Jr.; his four sisters, Francine Parker, Deborah Edmonds, Carole Bailey and Denise Bailey; one brother-in-law, David Parker; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
