“ Please accept my sincere sympathy for your loss. During this difficult time, you can find comfort in the Christian hope of the resurrection. Jesus promises at John 5: 28, 29: "Do not marvel at this but all those in the memorial tombs will hear my voice and come out." Yes we can have confidence that on the basis of the shed blood of Jesus Christ, we have a real opportunity to embrace our dead loved ones again.##imported-begin##A. Robinson##imported-end##

“ Some months have passed since you lost your dear loved one, but the pain never really leaves us; it just eases up a bit. I'd like to leave you with a comforting scripture, which has been a source of encouragement to my family when we lost loved ones. This is a promise that Jehovah God through his love and the love of his Son Jesus will soon carry out. At Rev 21:3-5 it says: "With that I heard a loud voice from the throne say: "Look!" "The tent of God is with mankind, and he will reside with them, and they will be his peoples, and God himself will be with them. "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. "The former things have passed away," One day your loved one will rise, and be able to live forever in peace and happiness. I ope that the promise of the ressurection gives you much comfort in the days ahead.###imported-begin###R Johnson###imported-end###
