

John Brown

October 11, 1928 - April 9, 2008

John Brown (J.B.), beloved son of the late Frank Brown and Rosa Woodard-Brown, was born October 11, 1928. He departed this earthly life on Wednesday April 9, 2008 at University Hospital after a very short illness. Affectionately called "Pop" by his family and J.B. by his close friends, he attended school in Wilson, North Carolina. In 1949 he relocated to Baltimore. J.B. became employed at Exxon Gas Station and Maryland Cup Company. Along with that he worked at the Cat's Paw Rubber Company and Pipe Company in Jessup L.I. Construction. He also worked and later retired from the Ajax Foundry. Always greeting you with a warm smile, J.B. had a very loving and generous heart. J.B. was truly a good father, a good friend, and a very good cook who was not very hard to please. Give him some scratch offs, a beer, his pipe and a chair in his yard and he would be just fine. He met the love of his life, Lena in 1968 and later married her in 1975. J.B. leaves to mourn; his wife, Lena; two brothers-in-law, Jerry and Wayne; sister, Elizabeth; six sisters-in-law, Gloria, Glenda, Leslie, Lydia, Paulette and Dorothy; eight sons, (Dale who preceded him in death), Reggie, Anthony, John, Tyron, Dennis, Brian, James, Tony D. and Chann Sr.; seven daughters, Karen, Tanya, Lynette, Varnita, Robin, Roxelle and Myelle; thirty-five grandchildren, thirteen great-grandchildren, a host of nieces, nephews and other relatives. He was very well known and loved by many who will sincerely miss him.

“ To the family. I would to extend my deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. At I time filled with so much sorrow I hope that you are able to find comfort and hope in the promises recorded in the scriptures, which were written so that through our endurance we may be comforted and have hope. (Romans 15:4) A very heartwarming scripture is found at Isaiah the 25th chapter verses 8 and 9. It states: “He (Jehovah God) will actually swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will certainly wipe the tears from all faces. . . . And in that day one will certainly say: ‘Look! This is our God. We have hoped in him, and he will save us. This is Jehovah. We have hoped in him. Let us be joyful and rejoice in the salvation by him.’” What a time to look forward to! May God’s word the Bible ease your pain as we await the fulfillment of these wonderful promises.##imported-begin##Sausha S.##imported-end##

“ I send my deepest condolences to the family of John. May you put all of your trust in Jehovah God, because he cares for you, and can give you the comfort and strength that you need to help you to cope. One day we won't have to bury our loved ones any longer, because God has promised that he will swallow up death forever and certainly wipe the tears from all faces, according to Isaiah 25:8. When our loved ones leave us, it's the most devastating thing we have to deal with, but God does not forget them, and he promises that one day all those who are in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus's voice and come out; those who did good things to a resurrection of life. John 5:28,29. May the hope of the resurrection give you a hope to look forward to, and help you to cope in the days to come.##imported-begin##Rita Johnson##imported-end##
