“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 5yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”—
ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!

“ To the Coleman Family,
I am so sorry to read of the death of your loved one. It is such a terrible pain to lose someone we love in death. I wanted to share what also brings me comfort when I lose loved ones in death. In the bible at Isaiah 25:8 it says that 'God will swallow up death forever'. So we know that soon we will not have to worry about death at all. What a wonderful hope. When we read the bible and it tells us about this hope it makes us feel good. We look forward to the time when we will see our loved ones again.

Please look into the scriptures and find all the wonderful blessings awaiting those who serve Him with spirit and truth. Revelation 21:4,5

“ John and I worked security together at FLM for many years. He always had that great smile and you could feel the love that he had for people. We had many conversations about New York which always ended in laughter. I will greatly miss him. One day we will meet again in paradise. Craig Dell
