

John Gilbert Coleman

April 22, 1936 - June 17, 2013

JOHN GILBERT COLEMAN, beloved son of the late Agnes and Granville Coleman, was born on April 22, 1936. He was the sixth of eleven children.

Gilbert was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System. Afterwards, he was self-employed doing home improvement.

Gilbert was a member of Saint Francis Xavier Church since his birth. He was very active in his community. He helped to keep his environment clean as well as mentoring young children. They all would call him their uncle.

Gilbert was affectionately know as “Gil” or “Ernie” by family and friends. He was a generous and kind-hearted person. He would give you all he had if you needed it. He never had a problem telling you “How it is.” Gilbert was a very loving brother, caring uncle and a wonderful friend.

We will remember and will miss his sense of humor. He either left you laughing or scratching your head at what happened. He loved to dance and sing to songs of the past. Everything on television was junk to him, except a great Western. He never got enough of them. He would light up when there were family gatherings, where he had a chance to share laughter, wisdom and his love.

Gilbert leaves to cherish his memory: his brothers and sisters, Margaret Johnson, Paul Coleman Sr., Richard Coleman Sr., Catherine (Jean) Gray, Patricia (Patsy) Levine, Michael Coleman Sr. and Agnes (Rosemary) Coleman (preceding him in death, brother, Joseph Hackett and sisters, Elizabeth (Betty) Wilson and Louise Coleman); a brother-in-law, James (Herman) Gray Sr.; and a host of nieces and nephews; his extended family, "Spring Street Crew"; and friends.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 4yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”— ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!
