

John D. Burns

February 9, 1908 - July 5, 2005

John D. Burns, son of the late Charlie and Lizzie Burns, was born on February 9, 1908 in Eagle Reek, North Carolina. He departed this life on Tuesday, July 5, 2005 after a beautiful, long life and a brief illness. He received his education in the Wake County, North Carolina school system. At an early age, he became employed by Bethlehem Steel Company where he retired in 1965 with more than thirty years of service. He married Arna Lee (deceased) on January 12, 1936. They shared 62 years of marital bliss and built a beautiful life together. He had a son, John Boykin (deceased) and a stepdaughter, Erma Green. Fishing was his joy and passion. John was a very outgoing person, full of the life and will be surely missed by those who knew and loved him. He leaves to mourn his stepdaughter, Erma Green of Baltimore, Maryland; brother, James Thomas Burns of New York City, New York; grandchildren, Deginal Boykin, Brian Boykin of Ft. Washington, Maryland, John Boykin, Jr. of Brunswick, Ohio, Aungela Duffel of Atlanta, Georgia, Barbara Ann Green and Eddie Green; Jr. of Baltimore, Maryland; nieces, Barbara Jones and Lottie Lee of Baltimore, Maryland, Emma Hall and Daisy Hill of New York City, New York; nephews, John T. Burns of Lanham, Maryland; great-grands, very special neighbors and a host of other friends who shared in his life.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
