

John Daniel Snowden

November 27, 1960 - October 24, 2009

JOHN DANIEL SNOWDEN, son of Martha W. Henley and the late John (Jack) Snowden, was born on November 27, 1960 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life on October 24, 2009. John received his formal education in Baltimore City Catholic and Public Schools. He graduated from Walbrook High School in 1978. He was a graduate of Stevenson University 1986 (the former villa Julie College) and Morgan State University 1983. Most recently John was truly blessed to be working for Baltimore Housing, having previously worked for them from 1989 to 1999. John was a people person, and he spent many years working in various retail establishments. John was also employed as a Bailiff for the Baltimore city Circuit Court and worked previously for the Maryland State Public Defender's Office. John was a prankster. He was always 'clowning'. He could always make us laugh with one of his many jokes, stories or an occasional magic trick. He especially enjoyed playing tricks on his nephews, Joshua and Ethan. Holidays were always a special time for John and our family. John enjoyed reminiscing about pass times with his step-father Joe Henley, Sr. and his maternal grandmother Agnes Watts. John was an accomplished artist who had several of his original paintings shown at local galleries, such as the James E. Lewis Gallery at Morgan State University. He was Renaissance man who played he guitar and actually had a small part in the major motion picture movie entitled, "King". John was a health and fitness guru who exercised regularly at Bally's Fitness, where he fell ill. He was an organ donor, and as a testament to his great physique and phenomenal graciousness, his heart, lung, kidneys, and liver were all matched with five transplant recipients. As a child of God, John was most passionate about his participation in the New Psalmist Baptist Church's Discipleship Ministry. John had an unbounded enthusiasm and love for his New Psalmist family, and it is with them that we celebrate his life today. He leaves to mourn: his loving mother Martha W Henley; his beloved companion, Susanne Hopkins; his brothers, Steve and Joey; his sisters-in-law, Josef Miller and Monica Wharton- Henley; his nephews, Joshua and Ethan; and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ Tell me not, in mournful numbers, Life is but an empty dream! For the soul is dead that slumbers, and things are not what they seem. Life is real! Life is earnest! And the grave is not its goal; Dust thou art; to dust returnest, Was not spoken of the soul. John Rest in Peace##imported-begin##Byron M Tolliver##imported-end##

“ I would like to express my deepest sympathy to Mr. Snowden's family. The untimely loss of a dearly loved one can be painful and difficult to bear, that's why the Bible calls death an "enemy." But, please be assured that God promises to do away with that enemy and all the pain it causes, according to 1Corinthians 15:26 and Revelation 21:4. Also, Daniel 12:2 states, "many of those asleep in the ground of dust will wake up." These are the promises of God, who cannot lie.-Titus 1:2. May you continue to find comfort in God's Word of Truth, the Bible##imported-begin##Valerie Johnson##imported-end##

“ Dear Family and Friends of Mr. John D. Snowden, Please accept my sincere condolences for the loss of your loved one. Death is a cruel "enemy,"(1 Corinthians 15:26) at any age. There is not one of us that has not been effected by this "enemy." I know that you will be comforted by the promises of Almighty God found at, Acts 24:15, John 5:28, 29 and Daniel 12:2. Please read these verses from your copy of the Bible and find comfort just as I have.##imported-begin##Brenda Curtis##imported-end##
