

John Darrell Edwards

December 12, 1959 - August 2, 2003

O Lord, support us all the day long until the shadows lengthen and the evening comes, and the busy world is hushed, and the fever of life is over, and our work is done, there in thy mercy grant us a safe lodging, and a holy rest and peace at last. Neuman John Darrell Pinkney Edwards, a native of Baltimore, Maryland was born on December 12, 1959 as the second son to the late Delbert Pinkney Edwards and Mary Jean Edwards, John departed this life on Saturday, August 2, 2003, at the University Hospital in Baltimore, Maryland. John Darrell Pinkney Edwards was known to his family and friends as Darrell (AKA) Apple Jack. Darrell was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System. He united in marriage with Jacqueline Spriggs Vinson on March 5, 2001. He grew up on the West Side of Baltimore City. He met many people in his daily journeys and was known throughout Baltimore City by many. Darrell had a remarkable ability to communicate with others. This was one of his greatest assets. It was often said he would have made a great salesman. In his younger days, Darrell was an outstanding roller skater and dancer. Many were charmed by his fairness. Later, Darrell loved to read books filled with mystery and suspense. He took pride in making sure that he stayed abreast of daily current events. He loved his family and was proud of their accomplishments. One thing people could say about Darrell, was that he had a really big heart. Throughout his life, Darrell never sat still. He was engrossed in the daily hustle and bustle, feverishly. He lived his life on the fast track. He was always excited and when he was around, everyone knew he was there. There was never a dull moment when Darrell was around. His roaring presence will truly be missed. Darrell leaves to cherish his memory, a wife, Jacqueline Spriggs Vinson Edwards, a devoted aunt and second mother, Jacqueline Holland, two loving brothers, Del Duayne Edwards and Derrick Leroy Tucker, one dedicated sister-in-law, Margie R. Edwards, his loving nephew and niece, Del Justin and Ashley Cierra Edwards, and a host of other nieces and nephews, caring aunts and uncles, Shirley Townes, Webbie and Anginette Brown, Ernestine Robinson, Keith and Ruth Robinson and many cousins and friends.

“ Sorry to hear about the loss of your dear loved. May you be comforted by this divinely inspired promise at John 5:28,29- "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life." May this help you to cope in this time of grief.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
