

John Paul Dowery

November 13, 1968 - November 23, 2006

John Paul Dowery, Jr., son of Sarah McKesson and John P. Dowery Sr., was born on November 13, 1968 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this Life on November 23, 2006. He received his education at Mervo High School in Baltimore. He was employed at Gourmet Bakery for numerous years. He also was employed with University of Maryland Hospital. He was baptized at Saint Paul Baptist Church. Dale, which he was called by family and friends, was a lively, strong willed person, a devoted son and father to all nine of his kids. He was definitely a family's man who would do anything to keep his family safe and happy. He was never one to bite back his words; if there was something he had to say or something was on his mind, he would always let you know just what it was. He was a person with a great sense of humor always laughing and joking with everyone. He loved to have a good time with family and friends. He loved to listen to his music, dance (even though he couldn't that didn't stop him). Like I said, he was a very determined person and no task was too great. He was a great cook. He could cook almost anything and he loved to experiment with different kinds of meals whether he made it for the first time or he just made it up. He also loved to have cookouts with family and friends, and they all loved to come to his cookouts because they were the best. Birthday parties were another celebration that became well known along with the great Mother's Day cookouts for his mother, fiancée and aunts. He leaves to celebrate and cherish his memory: his mother, Sarah J. McKesson; father, John P. Dowery, Sr.; fiancée, Yolanda Elliott; brothers, Rodney, Tray,

Floyd, Paul and Ricky; sisters, Tanita, Linda, Stacey, Tialathia, and Shannon; godsisters, Tracey and Laperna; nine children, John, Cecil, Blandon, Darae, Qudea, Eric, Paul, Tyreah and Kaiya; sister-in-law, Charleen Dowery; uncles, Larry McKesson and Milton Dowery, Ray, Fish, Bobby; aunts, Mary, Joyce, Rose, Harriet, Julia, Carolina, Deborah, Emma, Carolyn, Frederick L. Harris; and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ To the family of Mr. Dowery, please accept my condolences. Death is definitely a crushing blow to the family. It cuts so deeply into our hearts to lose someone we love. The scriptures can be so comforting during times of grief. The bible speaks of Jehovah as a God of tender mercies and comfort. 2nd Cor. 1:3,4. He also promises to raise our loved ones back to life, so we can be with them again everlastingly. The Apostle Paul believed in this hope as well. At Acts 24:15 he says, "And I have hope towards God that there is going to be a resurrection." May it comfort you to know that these promises of God will soon be fulfilled according to his word, and may those wonderful promises help you to cope.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##
