“ Please accept my condolences for your loss. Acts 24:15 lovingly declares "there is going to be a resurrection". Revelation 21:4,5 also reveals the end of "death, sorrow, crying and pain". May you receive much comfort and strength from this wonderful hope found in the Holy Bible.##imported-begin##Mrs. Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ To The Family of Mr. John Crawley, I would like to offer my deepest sympathy for the loss of your dear loved one. Times like these are never easy but the Bible encourages us to throw our burdens on God and he will sustain us (Psalm 55:22) in our sorrow. John 5:28-29 also speaks about a time when there will be a resurrection of those who have fallen asleep in death. Continue to lean upon the God of all comfort (1Cor1:3-5) to gain the strength needed to endure. Warmest regards, Chandra Murphy##imported-begin##Chandra Murphy##imported-end##

“ I offer my deepest sympathy to the family of John. Some months have gone past, but we never forget them. They are forever in our hearts, and we miss them so very much. Jehovah God didnot desire this legacy of pain and sorrow for us. He is the creator of all life and he hates death. Fortunately he promises, "AS the last enemy, death will be brought to nothing." The bible also promises that the dead will come back to life. At Acts 24:15 the apostle Paul said, "And I have hope towards God that there is going to be a ressurection of both the righteous and the unrighteous." Your dear loved one will then awaken from the sleep of death to everlasting life. May this hope sustain you, and help you to cope in the days ahead.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
