

John E. Farrare

November 15, 1923 - September 14, 2002

John E. Farrare, son of Bertie Baltimore Farrare Jones and the late John R. Farrare, was born in Dorchester County, Maryland on November 15, 1923. He departed this life on Saturday, September 14, 2002 when he quietly slipped from this earthly life to go home to be with the Lord. John was educated in the Dorchester County public school system. Afterwards he moved to Baltimore, Maryland and then was employed with the Baltimore Gas & Electric Company from which he retired after fifty-five years of service. He met Beulah Dixon, and they were joined together in Holy Matrimony on July 2, 1992. John loved being on the water doing such things as fishing, and he also enjoyed hunting. John was greatly loved by children and he enjoyed spending time with them. As a child John was taught about the things of God, but it was not until he heard the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ that he knew he needed something more than a religious experience. On August 8, 1999 he received Jesus Christ as his personal savior. He leaves to cherish his loving memory: his wife, Beulah; one son, Rickey Joyner; four daughters, Joan Higgins, Sandra Farrare, Lameda Farrare and Michelle Joyner; one stepdaughter, Trina Clark; eleven grandchildren, two step-grandsons, nine great-grandchildren; his mother, Bertie Jones of Vienna, Md.; one brother, Oliver Farrare of Salisbury, Md.; one sister, Eunice Jones of Rosedale, Md.; seven brothers-in-law, two sisters-in-law, all from Baltimore; one son-in-law, Glen Carter; one uncle, Kenny Farrare; two aunts, Hilda White of Baltimore, and Isabelle Farrare of Vienna, Md.; a host of nieces, nephews, and extended family and friends.

Tribute Wall

“ John E. Farrare

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ Healing happens slowly over weeks and months and years and even then, there will be days when memories call fresh tears. A song, a scent, or photograph keeps your heart in touch; with all that you so treasured in the one you miss so much.##imported-begin##The March Family and Staff##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM