

John E. Johnson

January 19, 1937 - January 1, 2006

JOHN EDWARD JOHNSON, son of the late Robert Lee Johnson and the late Rose Johnson was born on January 19, 1937. He departed this life on January 1, 2006 after a short illness at Genesis Health Care Nursing Home. He received his education at the Public School System of Tillery, North Carolina. At an early age he was baptized at Tillerys Chapel in North Carolina. He later attended Grace Memorial Baptist Church in Baltimore, Maryland. John was the baby of three children, although his siblings, Howard Johnson and Nell Johnson Wade preceded him in death. Uncle John was affectionately known as (BIG JOHN) to all that knew him. His favorite saying was HELLO THERE GAL! He worked at various Jobs throughout his Life. He retired from Broadway Laundromat. John was a very friendly person. He loved to go fishing, and he was excellent at drawing pictures of people. He loved entertaining family and friends at his home. He leaves to cherish his memory: one goddaughter, Terry Henson; his adopted daughters, Patricia Brown and Betty Garris and their children; a favorite niece, Fay Johnson; other nieces, Patricia Johnson, Nichelle Washington; nephews, Earl Johnson, Lenny Johnson and Robert Johnson and a host of cousins, great nieces and great nephews and other loving relatives and many friends.

“ We the Marcorp Staff wish to extend our prayers and love to you and your family in the passing of your loved one. Time will never take away the memories of the times you've shared with your love one... Those memories will remain with you forever. Live with your good memories, as they will add to your comfort, which comes from knowing that your grief is shared and understood.##imported-begin##The March Family and Staff##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ To the family, please accept my sincere condolences during this time of your loss. Please read and find comfort in Psalms 34:18; John 5:28,29 and Rev. 21:3,4. God promises to do away with death and the pain that it causes. May these scriptures bring you strength and encouragement during your time of sorrow.##imported-begin##Sean##imported-end##
