“ I would like to express my condolences to Mr. Sellers' family. The loss of a loved one can be painful, that's why the Bible calls death an "enemy." But, please be assured that God promises to do away with that enemy and all the pain it causes, according to 1 Corinthians 15:26 and Revelation 21:4. Also, Daniel 12:2 confirms the hope of a resurrection stating, "many of those asleep in the ground of dust will wake up." These are the promises of God, who cannot lie.-Titus 1:2. I hope you continue to find comfort in your cherished memories and in God's Word of Truth, the Bible.##imported-begin##Valerie Johnson##imported-end##

“ I wish to extend my deep condolences to the Sellers family for your great loss. Please remember that when our loved ones die we have the sure hope of being reunited with them by means of the promised resurrection. When Jesus was here on the earth he brought many people back from the dead. he called a person who was dead; a person who was sleeping, and when Lazarus died he told his apostles that he was journeying to his hometown to awaken him from sleep; thus showing that death is not permanent. John 11:11. By ressurecting people while he was here on earth, Jesus showed a small scale what he will soon do by ressurecting millions back from the dead. Bible prohecy indicates that the time is near for that glorious event to take place. Mathew 24:3-14, 1st Timothy 3:1-5. At John 11:25 Jesus said these powerful words, "I am the ressurection and the life. "He who exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." I sincerely hope that you find much comfort from God's wonderful promises, and if you would like to know more concerning an end to sickness and death, please contact me at my e-mail address. Take care.##imported-begin##R
