

John Elliott

June 19, 1945 - May 9, 2010

John Hubert Elliot was born on June 19, 1945 in Cumberland County, North Carolina. He departed this life on May 9, 2010 in Baltimore, Maryland at Franklin Square Hospital after a lengthy illness. During the last year of his illness, Deborah, as well as others were by his side. He was the son of the late John Henry and Lena Williams Elliott of Benson, North Carolina. His brothers James Bethea, Freddie Bethea and Albert Elliott also preceded him in death. John (Hulk) came to Baltimore in the early 1970s. He held numerous jobs. His passion was Truck Driving and working on friends', family and the community's cars. He would find a way to repair most of anything. He also enjoyed his gatherings with close friends and even people whom he really didn't know well. They all wanted to be in his company. Hulk got along well with everyone. Going fishing was another one of his passions. No one could cook on the grill as well as Hulk. Fish, chicken, ribs, you name it, he could do it. John cooked exceptionally well on or off the grill. Hulk had you cooked. He leaves to cherish his memory: Annie Ruth Elliott; daughter, Elizabeth Ann Elliott ; stepdaughter, Tabitha Elliott-Bennett (Brian); five sons, John H. Elliott (Sharon), Henry J. Elliott (Jeanette), Jaymes Elliott all of North Carolina, Anthony K. Phillips, (Michelle, Curtis, Earl, and Chima), Deborah Scott, (Bryant and Leroy) all of Baltimore, Maryland and John Edward of South Carolina; two sisters, Mary Joyner and Vickie Woods (John) of North Carolina; two brothers, Levi Elliott (Von) and Thomas Elliott (Tee) of North Carolina; seven grandchildren and a host of neices, and nephews, other relatives and dear friends.

Tribute Wall

“ John Elliott

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM