

John Henry Foster Jr.

February 12, 1942 - September 19, 2012

JOHN HENRY FOSTER, JR., son of the late John Henry Foster, Sr. and Martha Ann Davis-Foster, was born on February 12, 1942 at Johns Hopkins Hospital in Baltimore, Maryland. He was called home on September 19, 2012 after a lengthy illness.

His parents returned to South Carolina when he was a young boy and that's where he received his formal education.

John, June Bug and Cap, as he was affectionately called, wedded Bessie Redfern on September 18, 1978 in Chester, South Carolina and shortly thereafter they returned to Baltimore, Maryland to start their new life.

John retired from St. Agnes Hospital in 2012, after thirty-two years of service. Even after retiring he returned on a part-time basis until his illness progressed.

His favorite pastimes were spent watching Texas Ranger, COPS and traveling down South to visit family and friends.

John leaves to cherish his loving memory: his devoted wife, Bessie Foster; two sons, John Silas Foster of Pennsylvania and Al Foster of Maryland; two daughters, Kimberly (Michael) Byrd and Shonae (Michael) Francis both of Maryland; five brothers, Claybourn (Lillian) Foster of Maryland, Rev. Charles (Cora) Foster, Shead (Vicky) Foster, James Albert (Mary) Foster and George Lynn (Doris) Foster all of South Carolina; three sisters, Mary (Rev. James) Wylie, Mattie (Andrew) Wright and Martha (James) Stevenson all of South Carolina; three brothers-in-law, James (Linda) Redfern, Jr., Hollis Redfern, Sr. and Paul Wilson all of Baltimore, Maryland; two aunts, Earline Singleton of Baltimore, Maryland and Janie B. Davis of Blackstock, South Carolina; eight grandchildren, two great-grandchildren; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

“ I am so sorry for your lost. Losing a loved one is never easy. Jehovah God promises to do away with all of our suffering. In Revelation 21:4, it says "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." How comforting it is to now what Jehovah promises for us all. I encourage you and your family to read this in your own copy of the bible. I hope this helps in your time of need.

“ Even though we lead full and meaningful lives, sadness comes in when the end result is death. I am so sorry for the loss of your loved one. May you too look forward to the day when our loving Creator will reverse the pain and suffering we experience as a result of sickness with the eventuality of losing our loved one in death. In the meantime, please be assured that our loving Father will help you to endure the burden of your aches and pains because he cares for you. (1 Peter 5:7)

“ My deepest sympathy for your loss. I knew John. I don't remember where I know him from, but I never forget a face. It's a nice face, and I know his smile will be forever etched in your hearts. Cling to your wonderful memories you shared with him over the years until our loving heavenly Father awakens them from he sleep of death. May he bring you much comfort and peace in the days ahead. John 5:28,29

“ I want to express my sorrow over the loss of your loved one. Losing a loved one is something we all wish we never had to go through. Thankfully, within his word the Bible, God promises us that soon "death will be no more". He also gives us the hope of seeing our loved ones who have already fallen asleep in death (Revelation 21:3,4 John 5:28,29). Again my condolences.
