

John Frank Jackson

December 8, 1938 - April 8, 2007

John F. Jackson, the son of the late Clinton and Bessie Jackson was born on December 8, 1938 in Chesterfield, South Carolina. He was the youngest of seven children. John received his education in the public schools of South Carolina until his family decided to move to Baltimore, Maryland. There he continued his education. John was self employed, he was dependable, loyal, and kind to everyone that crossed his path. He never turned anyone away that needed a helping hand. Even though John never had children of his own he was a father figure to so many of his nieces, nephews, godchildren and friends. John's illness was short and his death was sudden. Even up to the last moments on this earth, John fought to be the same happy, jolly, fun, loving person we have all come to know. He leaves to cherish his memories one brother; Clinton Jackson of Baltimore, Maryland, two sisters; Mae Helen Merriman of Cheraw, S.C., Bessie Mae Anderson of Baltimore, Md., one sister-in-law: Fanny Jackson of Baltimore, Md., two devoted friends; Ruth of North Carolina, Annette of Baltimore, Md., and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, friends as well as several godchildren.

“ My condolences to your family for your loss. I am very sorry . May it comfort you to know that one day, according to John r:28,29; "All those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out to a ressurection of life." It is th purpose of our loving heavenly father, Jehovah, that death be done away with, and all faithful people will live forever amid paradise conditions. Please read about this at Isaiah 65:20-25, 2ndPeter 3:13, Psalm 37:10,11,29, Isaiah 25:8, and Rev.21:3-5. Very soon, a miraculous thing will take place on this earth. "The dead will hear the voice of the Son of God, and those who have given heed will live." May you be comforted by the hope of seeing your loved one again, and may your cherished memories bring you comfort at this time.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
