

John J. Gayden Sr.

March 28, 1947 - February 12, 2013

JOHN JEROME GAYDEN, son of the late John Gayden and Lillian Gayden, was born on March 28, 1947 in Richmond, Virginia. He departed this life on February 12, 2013 after a lengthy illness.

He received his education in the Baltimore City Public School System. After high school he held several jobs driving trailers from state to state, which his last employment was with Starline Industries.

He accepted Christ into his life in the late 70's. "Pop Lolly," as he was affectionately known, loved to make people laugh by telling jokes which was his trademark, along with reciting scriptures from the Bible. He made numerous friends wherever he went.

He leaves in memory: second parents, Dorothy and Richard Jenkins; aunt, Ruth Branch; one brother, Raymond Gayden (brother, Walter Gayden preceded him in death); three sisters, Mildred Taylor, Patricia Fields and Linda Harrington; three sons, Don Gayden, John Gayden, Jr. and Craig Gayden; three daughters Amutallah Gayden, Johnette Gayden and Chenita James (daughter, Shannon McBride preceded him in death); one daughter-in-law, Jenea Gayden; fifteen grandchildren, three great-grandchildren; cousin, Chuck, who he was very close to; someone he always called daughter, Lakisha Davis; the love of his life, Linda Buck; and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ I am sorry about the passing of your love one. May the family find comfort and support in the Holy Scriptures knowing Jehovah God is aware of our distress during this time of grief. Isaiah 66:13... God loves us and He knows the pain that death causes those left behind and He promised to soon put an end to death forever Isaiah 25:8. May God continue to bless your family.....Please accept My sincere condolences
