

John H. James

September 9, 1917 - April 27, 2006

On Thursday, April 27, 2006, God in His infinite wisdom and unfailing love, instructed the angels to call JOHN HENRY JAMES at Alice Manor and said, "Come on home and rest in peace - suffer no more My child. You have run a long, hard race. Come and join your beloved wife Regina Gladys James, who passed away on June 11, 2000." John Henry James Sr. was born September 9, 1917 in Baltimore, Maryland to the late Robert James and Maggie Cummings-James. John received his education in Baltimore City Public Schools. On April 5, 1942 he married the "Love of his life," Regina Gladys Hawkins. From 1942 to 1945 he served in the United States Army from which he was discharged with honors. John and Regina enjoyed fifty-eight wonderful years of marriage and family togetherness. From this union came the late John Jr. and Byron Sr.... next came Sharon (Toni) and Roxanne. Maurice Blackwell is a "spiritual son" who they took under their wings and loved as their own. John James was employed with Maryland Glass Corporation for over twenty-six years before retirement. He joined and enjoyed a bowling league for many years. He was very active in another club called G & M (Pinochle Club). He was a devoted husband and father. He was a joy to be around, "happy and jolly" with his closest friends, because he lived life to the fullest. For the last two years of John's illness, he was cared for by his "devoted" loving daughter Toni and son-in-law Curtis until God called him home. In his later years he accepted Christ and was baptized at Koinonia Baptist Church. He leaves to cherish fond memories: his loving and devoted daughters, Sharon (Toni) Brown and Roxanne White; two sons-in-law, Curtis Brown and Joseph White Sr.; two daughters-in-law, Shermaine and Phyllis; adopted son-in-law, Houston; fourteen grandchildren, John III, Byron Jr., Commander Tracey Hayes, Patrese, Troy, Larry Jr., Clifton III, Joseph Jr., Konika, Patricia, India, Teon and Ashley; eighteen great-grandchildren; five sisters-in-law, Bunny, Marguerite, Viola, Willie and Stephanie; four brothers-in-law, Rogers, Skippy, James and Donald; first cousins, Ella Langley; goddaughter, Thomasina; and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ Hello ! James 1 I would like to send condolences to you all, the family & friends. When death hits it breaks the circle of life for all. Mr. John was 90 years young when he died. Just think what life would be like If we could live forever. Our heavenly father know how you all are feeling these days and is there to give comfort as 2 Cor. 1:3 say in all our tribulations. Life can take a toll on us in these last days. May these few words be encouragement to read and all the memories of Mr. John be a support to your faith. Sincerely, Lillian Crosby.##imported-begin##Lillian Crosby##imported-end##
