“ *My prayers and thoughts are with the family. Just heard of Mr. Miller's home going on Sunday at 7:30 PM. He was my High School teacher, as well as my colleague in music. To his sister Valerie and other family members, I will be praying and thinking of you. What a Great Musician John was and now he is playing for that great choir. “ I extend my heartfelt condolences for the loss of your loved one. First Corinthians 15:26 lovingly declares that our "enemy death" will be destroyed. There is much hope for our dead loved ones because Acts 24:15 declares "there is going to be a resurrection". May you receive much comfort and strength from this wonderful hope found in the Bible.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ I offer my sincere condolences for the loss of Mr John. May our loving heavenly father continue to strengthen and sustain you during this trying time. Whenever you are feeling sad remeber how much God loves us. He gives us much assurance of his love and care at Isaiah 66:13 which says, "Like a man whom his own mother keeps comforting, so I myself shall keep comforting you people." Soon a wonderul change will take place on this earth, because there will be no more people getting sick or dying anymore. The dead will be brought back to life, because Jehovah God has given his son Jesus all authority to ressurect the dead. One day they will actually hear his voice and come out of the memorial tombs.
