

John M. Hairston

February 26, 1943 - April 7, 2016

John Melvin Hairston of Windsor Mill, Maryland passed away on April 7, 2016 after a long illness. He was called "Melvin" by family and friends as he grew up in Greensboro, North Carolina.

After high school, he joined the U.S. Army and spent three years in Germany. Shortly after he came home from the Army, he moved to Baltimore, Maryland and quickly found work at General Motors and retired after thirty years. After retirement he was called back to General Motors and worked three more years as supervisor and area supervisor traveling to Kansas City, Kansas, Blue Springs, Missouri, West Chester, New York and Atlanta, Georgia.

He leaves to mourn: his beloved wife, Deborah; and son, John Jr.; a daughter, Bianca; grandson, John III and granddaughter, Janice. He was devoted grandfather to Lamel and Lamiya. He will be missed by his siblings, B. Jean Slade (John) of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, D. June Brown (Bill) of Haverford, Pennsylvania, and Harold B. Hairston (Anne) of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
