

John E. Hall Jr.

January 28, 1967 - April 4, 2020

JOHN EDWARD HALL, JR. well known as “Peanut” to his family and friends was born to John Edward Hall, Sr. and the late Arnetta Audrey Hall on January 28, 1967 in Baltimore, Maryland. Suddenly on April 4, 2020 he departed this life.

He received his education in the Baltimore City Public School System.

He was employed at Giant Food Warehouse, Amazon Warehouse and Sparrows Point Shipyard until his death.

Peanut had a very nice smile and loving personality. He was very outspoken. He loved to DJ and spin records. He loved to wear sharp clothes. He had a very special unique bond with his mom Arnetta “Neicy” and his Aunt Norma Ann. To love him was to know him.

John was preceded in death by his mom, Arnetta Hall.

Peanut leaves to cherish his special memories: one daughter, Charday Hall; one son, Jawon Hall; one grandson, Preston; dad, John Hall, Sr. (Brenda Hall); fiancé, Denotta Skeens; one adopted brother, Quinn Hall; one nephew, Quinn Hall, Jr. (DJ); three aunts, one special Auntie Norma Fortune-House “Aunt Norma Ann” (Eugene House), Aunt Emily Graves and Aunt Pauline Henson “Bittsie”; one uncle, William Fortune, Jr. “Uncle Boogie”; and a host of cousins, other family members and friends.
