

John Henry Graves

May 8, 1938 - June 24, 2007

John Lee Graves, III, affectionately known as “Lil John” to his family and “Pills” to his friends, was born to Lolita P. Richards and John Lee Graves, Jr. on September 1, 1980. John departed this life on May 7, 2007. John was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System. He was employed at Richards Contracting and Port of Baltimore – Local #333. John was baptized at New Rose of Sharon Church. John loved his family and friends dearly. He went above and beyond the call of duty for his family and friends. He was a very kind hearted and thoughtful young man. John was a loving and caring person who always helped others. John always had a joke to tell and a beautiful smile for all he came in touch with. John enjoyed traveling and spending quality time with his son and family. John leaves to cherish his beautiful memory: his loving mother, Lolita P. Richards; father, John Graves Jr.; stepfather, Balford Richards; son, Juwan Graves and mother, Tiara; sister, Lolisa; two grandfathers, William Perry Sr. and John Graves Sr.; two grandmothers, Amanda Graves and the late Sallie Perry; uncle, William Jr.; five aunts, Darlene, Deborah, Janice, Lynette and Vandora; six great-aunts, Mary Perry, Bernice Sanders, Esther Brown, Dola Brown, Luclise Brown and Lottie Mae Lightner; three great-uncles, J. P. Davis, Marion Brown and Israel Lightner; and a host of cousins, other relatives and friends; including a special friend, Theresa.

“ I would like to express my deepest sympathy to Mr. Graves' family and friends. The loss of such a dear loved one is painful and difficult to bear. That's why the Bible calls death an enemy. Please be encouraged to know that God promises to do away with that enemy and all the pain it causes at 1Corinthians 15:26 and Revelation 21:4. I hope these Scriptual truths comfort your heart.###imported-begin###Valerie Johnson###imported-end##

“ I am very sorry to learn about the death of John. This must have been a difficult time for all of you. I'm forwarding scripture that will comfort you. Psalms 90:10 says that the usual human life span is 70 or 80 years. This was true when Moses wrote it but not so from the beginning. (compare Genesis 5:3-32.) Hebrews 9:27 says..It is reserved for men to die once for all time. This, too, was true when it was written but not the case before God passed judgement on sinful Adam.##imported-begin##JT Nunnally##imported-end##
