

John Henry Robinson

September 11, 1964 - August 1, 2006

JOHN HENRY ROBINSON, son of the late Willie and Fumiko Robinson, was born on September 11, 1964. He departed this life on August 1, 2006 unexpectedly. He received his education at Cardinal Gibbons High School in Baltimore, Maryland. As a youth, he worked in the family business, while he attended school. Upon completion of high school, he went on to attend DeVry Institution where he explored his interest in computers. Eventually he went on to fulfill his family tradition of military service. During his army career he received his certification as a licensed practical nurse. After several years of honorable service in the military, he went on to work for the home health system providing compassionate in-home care for the ill. While "Johnny" was never known to make many friends in his life, there was nothing he was more committed to than the love he had for his family and friends. He held close to his heart, and it was with that compassion that he was able to lay down everything for the love of his life, Stephanie Wagner. He leaves to mourn: his sister, Irene Robinson; brothers, Calvin Robinson and William Crosby also brother-in-law, John L. Southall; nieces and nephews, and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son Jesus Christ have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ So sorry about the loss of your loved one. The Bible can give us much comfort and solace. One scripture I find much solace from is John 5:28,29- "The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of live." May you receive much strength and comfort from this loving promise of the Bible.##imported-begin##S. Hill##imported-end##
