

John L. Hough

August 14, 1947 - March 31, 2019

John Louis Hough, II, son of the late Willie Mae Benjamin Hough and John Louis Hough, departed this life on March 31, 2019 after a long battle with a serious illness. We know he is no longer in pain and he is happily reunited with his grandmother, Mariah, loving parents, sister-aunt, Marie and his long-time friend, Michael.

Known to his family and friends as 'Johnny', he was born in Concord, North Carolina and raised in both Concord and Baltimore, MD. He was educated in the Concord and Baltimore City Public Schools and had a passion for learning. Johnny studied Theology and he also studied other courses, such as, Contract Law, at Baltimore County Community College. He earned various certifications in many fields, including health-and business-related, which he used to establish an assisted living facility.

Johnny joined the United States Navy just after graduating from High School in 1965 and proudly served his country in the Vietnam War. Later, in the Navy, Johnny really enjoyed working at the United States United Nations Protocol Liaison Office in Seoul, Korea. Once he concluded his service, Johnny eventually returned to Baltimore, MD where he began building his Baltimore legacy as caretaker and advocate for his mother and his three brothers, Kenneth, Leslie, and Raymond. Johnny began employment as a laborer with Bethlehem Steel in 1971 and later became a chemist until he retired after almost 32 years. He also became the Vice President of the United Steel Workers Union, Local #9477, for many years.

Johnny was a multi-faceted, well-versed, very determined, and strong advocate who fought for what was important to him and he loved his family. He was unselfish and always put everyone else before himself. Family meant everything to him and he made sure to bring the family together as often as he could.

He leaves to mourn, his brothers: Kenneth, Leslie, Raymond, his dear Aunt Jean, his niece, caregiver and advocate Cassaundra, and a host of cousins, nieces, nephews, and other loving family members and friends Johnny will be greatly missed by all who knew and loved him
