

John Howell

February 6, 1925 - February 22, 2002

John Howell was born on February 6, 1925 to Jerry and Bexie Moss Howell in Oxford, North Carolina. He was educated in the Grandville County Public School System in Oxford. After moving to Baltimore, Maryland in the early 1940's, he met and married the love of his life, Alease McDaniels. This union remained full and complete for fifty-five years. At a young age, John gave his life to Christ and joined the Union A.M.E. Church in Wilton, North Carolina. In the mid-1940's he joined Charity Baptist Church under the pastorate of Reverend Wilkerson. John was ordained as a Deacon by the late Pastor Thomas C. Turner on February 11, 1973. For the past seven years, Deacon Howell developed a special relationship with Pastor Hollis Neal. He loved and respected him and was always in a position of servitude in relation to his Pastor. Deacon Howell remained a faithful and dedicated member of First Charity Baptist Church for nearly sixty years. He has served on the Male Chorus, Gospel Chorus, and the Memorial Guild, Chairman of the Usher Board, the Deacon Board and Trustee Board, the Food Bank and as Church Sexton. Deacon Howell retired from the Bethlehem Steel Corporation after thirty-nine year tenure. Uncle John, as he was fondly known by the First Charity Baptist Church family and friends, enjoyed fishing, cleaning and helping anyone who was in need. In the peace and solitude of his home on February 22, 2002, he went to be with the Lord. He leaves to cherish his memory: his wife, Alease; three grandchildren, Angela; three grandchildren, Angela, Antonio and DeWayne; four great-grandchildren, Shakirra, Antonio II,

Ashley and Jerry; two sisters, Seberta Cooper and Bernie Mae Royster both of Oxford, North Carolina; one sister-in-law, Annette Thomas; a devoted niece, Sonya Henson; seven godchildren, Eva, Shirley, Sandra, Christopher, Chimere, Aquanetta (Tic) and Michael. He also leaves a very dear friend, Raymond Scott, a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends
