

John J. Williams

October 28, 1911 - December 22, 2004

John J. Williams was born October 28, 1911 in King and Queen County, Virginia. He was the one and only child born to Mrs. and Mr. Hayes. Before coming to Baltimore, Maryland, he met and married his wife Bertha Robinson. There were no children born from this union. He leaves to remember him step-daughters, Mrs. Evelyn E. Whitt and Mrs. Edith Wright. John was a generous, quiet, hard-working man who loved people and life. He left lots of grandchildren, other relatives and friends. On December 22, 2004, John took flight from earth to heaven. May John rest in peace.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Hello Family & Friends, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at John 11:25,26 where Jesus says "I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life; and everyone that is living and exercises faith in me will never die at all." May you be comforted by this scripture.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ My condolences to the family. I know you are greatly saddened by the loss of your loved one. However, the Bible gives us comfort. 2 Corinthians 1:3,4 helps to give such comfort it says "the God of comfort will comfort us in all our tribulation." May you continue to find comfort from the Bible.##imported-begin##KA##imported-end##

“ My condolences to the family. It seems so unfair that death should have the power to take away someone we love. However, the bible gives us the needed strength to cope. At John 5:28,29 God promises a resurrection of those who went asleep in death. May this fortify and strengthen you as it did me.##imported-begin##Vanessa Adams##imported-end##
